

◇ WELCOME ◇

Dear parents, friends and parish members,

Welcome to the St. Pius X Home and School Association's Eighteenth Annual Redono Auction.

Thank you all for joining us this evening. We are so very happy that you could come out to show your support for our wonderful school! We truly hope that you enjoy your evening. If this is your first time at the Redono Auction, we welcome you and hope you have a wonderful evening.

Over the last several months, we've witnessed so many people volunteering countless hours to ensure our auction is a success. To each of you, we extend our sincere, heartfelt thanks. You are absolutely amazing, and without you, tonight would be impossible.

To all of you who have contributed or will be contributing your time, talent and treasure to the auction this evening, we are humbled by your generosity. As you may know, tonight is our school's only fundraising event. The funds raised this evening go toward many necessities that are vital to ensuring the best possible Christ-centered education for our children. We thank you for your support.

We truly feel blessed to have such a wonderful school that, for 60 years, has continued to provide our children with a solid academic education, all the while teaching them the values of serving God and others.

The meaning of Redono in Latin is "to give back". Thank you for being with us this evening "to give back" to our school. Please remember that every dollar raised tonight goes directly to benefit our sweet children, so bid often, bid high, and have FUN!

God bless,

Keith & Michelle Krone

◇ TAX INFORMATION ◇

HOW THE IRS VIEWS CHARITABLE FUNDRAISING DINNER AUCTIONS

The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) has ruled that it is the responsibility of the sponsoring organization to inform potential donors regarding what is considered a tax deductible donation, and what is not.

Tax deductible gifts are a one-way, one-time avenue in the eyes of the IRS. There can never be a two-way benefit on events for charity. Only money paid over and above the "fair market price" can be deducted by the purchaser as a tax deduction.

The Auction book serves as our disclosure of the value of each auction item as determined in good faith by the donor. For Federal income tax purposes, you may declare a deduction only on the amount you spend in excess of the estimated value of the goods or services.

Please keep the Auction book and paid receipts for any purchased items for your income tax records.

Purchase of Raffle tickets of any kinds are not tax deductible.

You are also entitled to a charitable contribution to the extent that the cost of the dinner tickets the "fair market value" of the meal. In this case, the good faith tax deduction is $20.00 per person.

NOTE

You should contact your tax advisor for a full explanation of the charitable deduction tax laws.

◇ ANNOUNCEMENTS ◇

CHECK OUT

ExpressPay is an option available this year. If you have not already signed up, please visit Angie Richardson in the Cashier's Office (Kindergarten Room) to fill out paperwork for this time-saving feature. Payment by the end of the evening is mandatory. If payment is not received by the end of the auction the next highest bidder could be awarded the item. You may pay by check, cash, Visa, MasterCard and Discover.

PICK UP

Most items can be claimed from the specific area where your item was displayed. Certificates and tickets will be available for pick up at the Cashier's table. Please take all purchased tangible items with you.

CERTIFICATES FOR INTANGIBLES

Certificates will provide information on how to obtain the item or service in the case there is no tangible item. Certificates will also list any expiration dates and restrictions on the items you have purchases. You are advised to call the listed contact.

CONDITIONS OF SALE

All sales are final. Unless otherwise specified in the catalog or on the certificate, no item may be exchanged. No refunds will be made by St. Pius X School or by the donors. St. Pius X School does not make any guarantees regarding the donated items or services. All items are sold "as is" with no expressed or implied guarantees or warranties except those which may be supplied by the donor or manufacturer. Reservations for specific purchases are the responsibility of the purchaser.

NOTE

The Auction officials have made a good faith attempt to be accurate and thorough cataloging donations and apologize for any errors.

◇ LIVE AUCTION ◇

BIDDING ON A LIVE ITEM

The back of your Auction book will also serve as your bidder number. Your Auction wristband will also help remind you of your bidder number throughout the evening. The bidder number on your book and wristband is registered to your name. There will be “spotters” on the floor helping to call the auctioneer’s attention to your raised book or hand. Once you are the successful bidder, please ensure that your big number is visible so that the auctioneer can read it clearly.

NOTE

Acceptance of the successful bid by the auctioneer is binding. Announcements made the night of the Auction take precedence over printed material.

PICK OF THE AUCTION REPLACEMENT

The following item will NOT be available for the Pick of the Auction and it will be auctioned off in place of the item chosen by the Pick of the Auction Winner.
